The Missouri Food Safety Task Force is sponsoring a Food Processor Entrepreneur Workshop for individuals who are interested in the manufacture and sale of food items such as salsa, barbeque sauces, jerky, baked goods, jellies and jams.

Topics covered will include:

- Federal, State and Local regulations
- Facility and equipment requirements
- Special training requirements.
- Process development/evaluation
- Product testing
- Start-up costs
- Licensure fees
- Market development
- Good manufacturing practices
- Labeling information

Speakers will be from:

- Missouri Dept. of Health and Senior Services
- U.S. Department of Agriculture
- University of Missouri
- Missouri Department of Agriculture
- U.S. Food and Drug Administration
- Successful Missouri Entrepreneurs

The majority of the costs for the workshop are being paid for by DHSS through a Food and Drug Administration Food Safety Task Force Grant. A registration fee of $15 will cover lodging for the night of May 23rd, lunch and breaks at the workshop and all workshop materials.

DHSS has reserved a block of 50 rooms at the Capitol Plaza, Jefferson City for the evening prior to the workshop, May 23rd. For reservations, call (573) 635-1234 and request a room under the name of "The Food Processor Entrepreneur Workshop". DHSS will be billed for all rooms reserved under this name until the cutoff date of May 9 or until the block of 50 is filled. Attendees are responsible for making their own travel arrangements and lodging reservations. Rooms are limited to individuals attending the workshop.

Attendance at the workshop is limited to 100 people and their registration fee of $15.00 is required at the time of registration. Registration information is located on the back of this flyer. It needs to be received by Department of Health and Senior Services, Fee Receipts by 5:00 p.m. on May 17, 2006. If you have questions regarding the workshop, please contact Bryan Haugen at (417) 895-6932. Please make checks payable to the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services.
